The 2019 Sandler Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir is one of only two Pinots Sandler produced in 2019. It is made up of Pinot Noir from 5 excellent vineyards in the Sonoma Coast and Russian River Valley appellations. 44% of the blend is from Freeman's Yu-ki Estate, near the town of Occidental. 31% comes from Freeman's other vineyard, Gloria Estate, which is located in the southern part of the Green Valley area. From the other end of Green Valley, Keefer Ranch added 17% to this wine, while Jim Pratt's vineyard on Sexton Road in the Sebastopol Hills contributed 8%.
